Softball League to Be Formed at 6:15 At Play Grounds

About 20 interested persons attended the first meeting of the Softball League Friday night held at the Canyon Hardware store.

The first game was played Monday evening when those interested gathered at the play grounds in the northeast part of town for the first practice game.

All players interested in the league are called upon to meet this evening at 6:15 o'clock at the grounds in order to elect officers and to make plans for the season. Each group which intends entering teams in the league are urged to have representatives present at the meeting this evening.

A large delegation from the Presbyterian Church, headed by Rev. Chas. L. Dickey, attended the Presbytery meeting in Tulia yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Shirley left Tuesday for Austin, San Marcos, and San Antonio.

Holding Revival

REV. WRIGHT RANDOLPH

The revival meeting started at the Church of Christ last Sunday continues with increasing interest, according to a report yesterday by Earl M. Craig, local minister of the church.

Rev. Wright Randolph of Clovis, N. M., is bringing some interesting sermons to interested audiences. The meeting will continue through Wednesday, April 29th with services twice daily, at 2:30 in the afternoon, and at 8 o'clock in the evening. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

152 Home Owners Loans Are Placed In Randall County

Home owners in Randall County have received loans, for refinancing purposes, from the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, amounting to $334,627, as of January 2, according to an announcement made by H. P. Drought, State Director of the National Emergency Council for Texas. This total represents 152 individual loans to home owners.

The total amount of loans closed in Texas by the Home Owners' Loan Corporation as of January 2, was $101,823,418, representing 43,741 individual loans. Six hundred and fifty-nine applications were pending on the above date.

Petrified Wood Is Found to Complete The Buffalo Courts

Coach Al Baggett has found a large amount of petrified wood on the Matador ranch northeast of Amarillo, and has secured permission to take all that is necessary to complete Buffalo Courts and the Recreation Hall. Work is progressing rapidly on these units and June 1 has been set as the goal to complete all of this work.

One tree of petrified wood 75 feet long will be brought here to decorate the sunken garden which is being built north of Buffalo Courts. This is the largest piece of wood that has been discovered and will make very attractive decorations.

All decorations of the Recreation Hall and Buffalo Courts are of petrified wood which Mr. Baggett has secured at various places on the Canadian. Most of it came from the ranch of Chaslor Weymouth, well known stockman, who has taken a great interest in the construction of these buildings.

These buildings have been pronounced by WPA as the outstanding achievement of the state, and officials from over the Southwest have visited the campus of W. T. to view the development which has been made there.

Duster Hits Here Suddenly on Monday Afternoon

Following two weeks of very quiet and summer like weather, a duster appeared from the southwest suddenly Monday afternoon. The wind changed to the north early in the evening and the temperature dropped to 31 degrees above zero.

No rain has fallen in this section, although showers have visited scattered sections of the Panhandle during the past week.

The wind caused more damage to the wheat which remained alive.

Mrs. Paul M. Waddill of Borger visited at the home of her mother Mrs. E. J. Landrum, last Thursday and Friday.

No. 95 for Sweetwater, Fort Worth, Dallas, etc., will continue to leave Canyon at 7:45 p. m. as at present. No. 94 from the south will continue to reach here at 11 a. m., for Amarillo.

Postoffice Plans Likely Be Finished By Saturday

Congressman Marvin Jones writes the News from Washington that plans for the new postoffice building are nearing completion, and unless something happens this week to cause delay, the plans will be completed by Saturday.

After the plans are completed it will take about three weeks before the advertising may start for bids on the building.

According to the schedule, it is likely that bids will be opened near the first of July. No indication has been given as to the probable cost of the new building, or the time that construction may start.

Forger Passed Two Checks Here on Saturday

Two forged checks were passed here Saturday to local business houses. The same man passed the checks which he had signed on R. O. Allison, local dairyman.

The signature was questioned at the Bank, and the checks declared to be forged.

The forger has not been found, although he has been around Canyon for some time and is known by several people. Business houses are warned not to cash checks presented by strangers unless they are certain of the signature on the checks. Forgery has increased very rapidly throughout this section as many crooks are said to be travelling toward Dallas for the Centennial crowd where they hope to reap a harvest.

Golf Tournament To Open Sunday 26 Are Registered

The first golf tournament of the season will open Sunday, April 26, for members of the Canyon City Club. The play will be stroke competition on 54 holes, 18 holes to be played three consecutive weeks, beginning Sunday and continuing on May 3 and 10. Play will begin at 1:15 p. m.

No tournament play will be permitted on any other dates unless unplayable weather interferes, in which case another date will be set by the committee in charge.

There are 26 members who have signed up for play. It is hoped that many more will make arrangements to enter into this first tournament of the year. The number of flights will be determined by the number of players entering, and flights will be determined after the 54 holes have been completed.

The tournament committee consists of Carl Scott, Ed Mickie, Felix Neff and Bill Smith.

MEN OF COLLEGE TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY

All men of W. T. are being invited to a meeting next Thursday afternoon, April 30, at 4:00 o'clock by S. H. Condon of the department of Government.

At this time talks will be made on government, the first from the viewpoint of a layman by Clyde Warwick, and the second from the standpoint of a government employee by Ralph Bray of the Resettlement Administration of Amarillo.

Miss Frances Lester of Dumas spent the week end here at the home of Mrs. Irene Wilson and Mrs. Jamie Talley.

Bainer Believes 30% Wheat Crop Is Still Safe

20% Is Doubtful and 50% of Acreage Is Loss, According to the Latest Estimate

H. M. Bainer, agricultural agent for the Santa Fe, was here this morning. He is constantly on the road keeping in touch with the wheat situation for his company.

As the wheat stands now, Mr. Bainer believes there is a 50% loss; there is a possibility of a 30% crop, with 20% doubtful. The wind of Monday reduced his estimates of last week, when he believed there was a possibility of a 60% crop.

"If a good general rain would come, the situation would improve very rapidly," stated Mr. Bainer. "But the sad part is the lack of indications for such a rain." The entire Southwest is dry, states Mr. Bainer, excepting occasional spots. Eastern Kansas is almost as dry as Western Kansas and the Panhandle. Oklahoma is as dry as this section, while nearly all of Texas is in the drouth belt.

Palo Duro Draws Large Crowd For the Past Week End

The Palo Duro State Park drew another large crowd Sunday, although not quite so many as the week previously. A total of 275 cars visited the Park, with 194 of them coming on Sunday.

Several parties of school children were among the visitors, including three truck loads which came from New Mexico.

Among the towns sending cars were: Amarillo 104; Pampa 16; Canyon 12; Lubbock 10; Panhandle 9; Borger 6; Dallas 5; Dalhart and Tulia 4; Canadian 3.

Thirty-eight cars from states out side of Texas visited the Park. More negroes arrived Sunday as replacements in the CCC Company, and another group will arrive during the week to build the company to full strength.

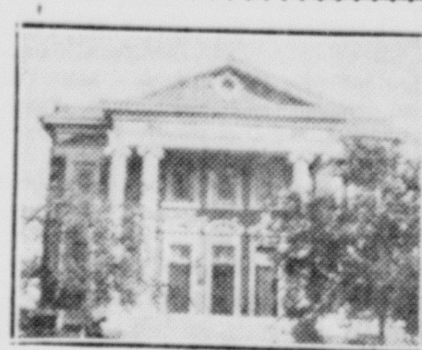

Another bunch of 30 CCC workers came Monday. It is expected the company will be brought to full strength by the first of May.

CONGRESSMAN JOE EAGLE ANNOUNCES AGAINST SHEPPARD

Panhandle Press Holds Annual Convention in Amarillo

More than 125 newspaper workers registered at the annual convention of the Panhandle Press Association in Amarillo Friday and Saturday. Many others attended the social functions which were held during the two days.

The program was said to be one of the most interesting ever held by the association, as debates were held upon a dozen questions affecting the newspaper profession.

In the election of officers, J. C. Estlack of the Clarendon Leader was named president; Albert Cooper of the Shamrock Texan, vice-president; Clyde Warwick of the Canyon News, secretary; F. P. Englemann of the Tulia Herald, Olin E. Hinkle of the Pampa News, Jess Mitchell of the Muleshoe Journal and Douglas Meador of the Matador Tribune, as directors.

Mrs. T. V. Reeves announced the newspaper clinic which will be held in June at W. T., conducted by John H. Casey of the Oklahoma University School of Journalism, and invited publishers to attend.

John McCarty of the Amarillo News-Globe was president the past year.

Luncheons complimentary to the press were held Friday and Saturday, while a complimentary dinner and floor show was held Friday night.

Final Call Made To Close Rogers Memorial Fund

Captain Eddie Rickenbacker is making a final national appeal for funds for the Will Rogers Memorial. May 22-28 has been set as the final round up dates.

The week will also mark the dedication of the Will Rogers Memorial Hospital at Saranac Lake in the Adirondacks, a million dollar institution formerly known as the N. V. A. Sanitarium and Lodge, which has been presented to the Will Rogers Memorial Commission. The hospital will be dedicated to the services of those of Will Rogers' profession of stage and screen who are sick and needy. This tribute is considered by the Commission and many of Will Rogers' most intimate friends as the type of memorial which would have been most pleasing to him. It will give aid to the unfortunate members of the profession which he loved and to which he in his lifetime contributed so greatly. This program is in line with announcements made by Jesse Jones, treasurer of the Will Rogers Memorial Commission, and by Mr. Hays, on behalf of the motion picture industry, at the time of the acceptance by the Commission of the gift of the hospital.

Those who wish to make a contribution to the Will Rogers Fund are requested to leave the money at the News office or the First National Bank.

Three Boys Land In Jail Charged With Hose Theft

Richard and Orville Moore are in jail serving a six months sentence on the charge of theft. They plead guilty to taking hose at the Presbyterian Church and from the Whittenburg home, and were sentenced to jail by Judge Burney Slack when tried Tuesday.

J. D. Stice was charged with perjury and is in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury in August when he failed to make a $1,000 bond.

Sheriff Bob Barnett transferred the three boys to the Amarillo jail after the sentence was imposed. Both of the Moore boys were recently married.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Terrill returned Sunday from a business trip to Austin.

Charter Members Among Builders of Community—Early Officers Are Recalled

Sunday, April 26th the local Presbyterian Church will celebrate the 45th anniversary of its organization with special services fitting the occasion. Memories of the early days of the church will be reviewed and tribute paid to those who founded and served this religious organization nearly a half century ago. The early church records have been misplaced and facts of the past history of the church are taken from the memories of the few who remain and upon family accounts and traditions.

The following excerpt was taken from the old records of the Peace River Presbytery, April 25, 1891: "Committee on overtures made a report which was adopted as follows: We recommend that the petition of the Canyon City Congregation, asking to be taken under the care of this Presbytery, be granted. Signed by Committee Chairman T. F. Reid of Chillicothe, Texas." In the same record at the October meeting of Presbytery in 1891... "Canyon City Congregation asked for the ministerial services of the Rev. A. W. Rodgers for one fourth of his time for the next six months, for which they agree to pay him $60.00."

There was no church building at this time and services were held in the court house and in the mercantile building of Roberts and Leach. In 1902 the congregation built a new church located at the corner of 5th Avenue and 11th Street, just across from the present manse, where they continued to worship until 1926 when the present building was erected under the guidance of the late Rev. W. C. Kunze. It will long stand as a memorial to him, who so unselfishly gave himself to a beautiful and unselfish ministerial life. It must not go without saying that long before the different denominations were organized, union Sunday school and church services were held. Among the old pio-

Fifty Applications Are Received Here For '36 Crop Loans

Crop loan applications are being made at the court house. These loans are for row crop planting this spring. Fifty farmers have made application for loans, which are limited to $200 to the farmer. No time limit has been set for the time these loans will be made, but early applications will insure quick action in getting the money.

Highway Park on Tierra Blanca Is Nearly Completed

The State Highway Department has nearly completed the small park south of Canyon on Highway No. 9 on the Tierra Blanca.

A caliche drive has been built through the park, and a large number of trees set out. Grass will be planted over the plot of ground.

The site of the park was formerly an eyesore dumping ground. The policy of the highway department is to transform these spots into little highway parks where tourists will be invited to camp, or local citizens gather for small picnics. This is the first park of its kind in this section.

KAL SEGRIST HERE

Kal Segrist, candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, was here last week meeting a number of voters.

He is the first candidate for state office who has spent much time in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Foster went to Stamford Saturday to visit at the home of Mrs. Foster's parents until Tuesday.

A movement is on foot to change the name of the West Texas State Teachers College, leaving out the word "Teachers." On recent authority of the Board of Regents, more stress will be placed upon courses which are not required in the teaching profession, but which prepare students for other professions. In order to shorten the name of the institution, the Canyon News has used the abbreviation W. T. for several years. Now the Amarillo papers have dropped the "Teachers" from all dispatches. But what we started to say was, that the same movement is taking place in other parts of the state. The Kingsville institution was changed several years ago during the life-time of Dr. R. B. Cousins. Now we read of the movement at Commerce to change the name of the East Texas State Teachers College. Editorials have appeared in the college newspaper of that institution urging the reduction of requirements in teacher training in order to secure a degree. The prediction is made at Commerce that the attendance would be greatly increased with a more liberal curriculum, reducing the requirements in taking teacher training courses. The same argument has been used in Canyon and Amarillo, in regard to W. T. Without doubt, a change is coming rapidly in the teacher training institutions, with more liberal opportunities for students to study in these institutions for other professions.

Five cases of hi-jacking within four days in this section brings forcefully to the people the need of strengthening the forces of law enforcement. Officers cannot be at the scene where crimes are to be committed. No matter how ardently the officers are trying to uphold the law, the citizens have a duty to perform, too many are refusing to do. Too many citizens refuse to give the officers any sort of information regarding crimes which are committed; too many refuse to serve on the juries of criminal cases; too many refuse to uphold the courts in their efforts to punish criminals; too many openly sympathize with the criminal while he is being tried, and attempt to release him from prison after he is convicted. The sobbing sentimentalists cause the criminal to believe that the American people do not want to see the law of the land enforced. The Hauptmann case was a national disgrace and made this nation the laughing stock of the civilized world. The petty criminal is taking advantage of the gushing sentiment that was expressed for the criminal and believes that he can get away with his petty racket. If there is one thing that this nation needs and needs very badly just now is a shaking up that will lead the people to seriously contemplate the need of law enforcement.

The government has been doing a lot of things for the drouth section of the Southwest. Most of the money has been well spent, and most of the people have profited by the friendliness of the administration in spending huge sums of money here. A strong arm of the government has located here, which may or may not provide a solace to the agricultural interest of this section. This is Resettlement Administration. There has been a lot of complaining in this section that the government has not done more. Too many of our people are prone to want to do everything their own way, regardless of opinions in Washington. Rex Tugwell, head of RA, has an idea that this is a desert. The complaining of our people may prove to him that the country is worthless, and orders could be given to move large numbers out. It is the great American sport to cuss everything that the government does and is doing, and to protest the activities of the government. After all that has been done in this section, which is none too much, and the work that is being planned for the future, perhaps it is well not to complain too bitterly of our treatment. The results might be more displeasing than we thought possible.

President Roosevelt has advocated a solution of the unemployment problem, by keeping in school all under 18 years of age, and retiring from active service all over 65 years of age. In the first instance, we heartily agree. To the latter there should be some qualifications. To retire a man from active work when he is hale and hearty and ambitious is almost like signing his death warrant. A restriction of hours of labor seems to be generally approved as one of the most popular methods of giving labor to more people. This may come about in a shorter time than most people realize, owing to the improved labor-saving machines which are putting more and more people out of work. Both political parties figure that the unemployment problem is the gravest facing this nation. Perhaps the party presenting the soundest platform appeal on unemployment will garner the largest block of necessary voters in states where the votes are needed to win. There cannot be nation wide prosperity so long as ten million people are unemployed.

Small town editors attending the Panhandle Press Association at Amarillo last week expressed the uniform opinion that the small town will survive in proportion to the fight for existence which is put up by the local people to save their lives. Several editors from small towns told of the business methods being used in their towns to keep business at home. The small towns have a fight on their hands, but nearly every town has a bunch of fighters who are determined that their communities will not be wiped out by the lure of the big towns.

So Tom Hunter feels the urge to run for Governor once more. He states that he has spent three weeks looking over the state and finds that the people are demanding that he offer for the job. Tom will no doubt, come to the conclusion that the past three weeks among friends were much more pleasant than he will find the coming three months as he goes out among the voters. If Tom could have stayed straight in the saddle during the last campaign, he might have been elected governor. But during the final wind-up of the second campaign, Tom was on both sides of every leading political question, switching from one side to another with such rapidity that his friends could not follow him. Tom might have been elected governor at some future time, but 1936 is not his year. With ten in the race, Governor Allred should defeat the entire bunch in the first primary.

When the people of Amarillo start out to do things, they just naturally do them a little better than any one else can do. We speak of the Panhandle Press Association meeting Friday and Saturday. The people of Amarillo went out of their way to make this meeting of the Press Association one of the most enjoyable and profitable the association has had in years. A group of Amarillo business people furnished a luncheon Friday noon, a dinner Friday night, while the News-Globe and Tri-State Fair put on the luncheon Saturday noon. Panhandle publishers like to go to Amarillo for their meetings. Preparations are under way for the 30th annual session next year which should be the largest in the history of the organization.

Two favorite campaign cries in Texas: reduce the gasoline tax, and abolish the poll tax. Those who raise these cries have not studied out the effect which these two reductions would make. Reducing the gasoline tax would deprive the school fund of about seven million dollars, and would prohibit the building of any more state highways; abolishing the poll tax would deprive the school fund of more than a million dollars, and would cause the state much additional expense in handling a registration system. Do not be deceived by the promises of those who would save money by destroying the existing institutions of the state.

Col. Frank Knox and Senator Borah fought for the Republican vote of Illinois last week, while President Roosevelt without opposition polled more votes than both the Republicans combined. Knox won Chicago, while Borah won the rest of the state. There is not much consolation to the Republicans in this preferential election since many Democrats did not bother to go to the polls there being no opposition to the President, while the Republicans sought for a full turn out of voters. Roses Are Planted As Memorial To Former Teacher

Three dozen climbing talisman roses were planted on the campus last week in memory of Mrs. Mabel Watkins Lang, who was a member of the English faculty of W. T. from 1919 until 1928. She was acting head of the department for the year 1927-28, until January 19 of that year.

Mrs. Lang was one of the most efficient, most sympathetic, and most beloved teachers of the long list who have served in the college.

Her daughter, Martha Nell Lang, received her degree in 1934; she was editor-in-chief of Le Mirage in her senior year. She is now teaching the public schools of Tyler, where she is doing some experimentation in the field of socialized physical education and, according to all reports, is making a real contribution in the field.

Martha Nell is teaching in the heart of the rose country, and she asked permission to send the roses to be planted in memory of her mother. The climbers will add beauty to the front of the Administration and Education Buildings. The roses are planted between the windows on either side of the front entrance of the buildings.

New Glass Stretches, Rolls Up

A new safety glass—a refinement of the present familiar shatter-proof variety—may be stretched like a rubber band or rolled up like a rug. Here is one of the tests it underwent in a recent New York demonstration. After the man removed his weight, the glass slowly regained its shape. The material is a sandwich—two sheets of real glass with a plastic called vinyl between them. The plastic binds the glass after it has been broken to bits. A person thrown against it will not be cut.

Martin Says McLarnin Is Always Picking on Some Little Guy, and Points to Bout With Canzoneri, Set for May 8, as an Example

BY PHILIP MARTIN

ON May 8, Jimmy McLarnin, the former welterweight king, steps into the ring to meet Tony Canzoneri, present holder of the lightweight crown.

What a bully the baby-faced Irishman has turned out to be! He's always picking on the little guys.

It is a well-known fact among boxing fans that Jimmy's manager, Pop Foster, favors matches for his meal ticket which pit less hefty battlers against the Vancouver Mick.

When Jimmy held the welterweight title, it was always a dehydrated McLarnin who mounted the scales—and one who never failed to tip them just under the poundage limit. This shrinkage was due to abstinence from food and water well in advance of the weight registration.

McLarnin, who usually had trouble making weight, would put on 3 to 10 pounds by match time. Always a tough one, Jimmy was especially formidable with this advantage.

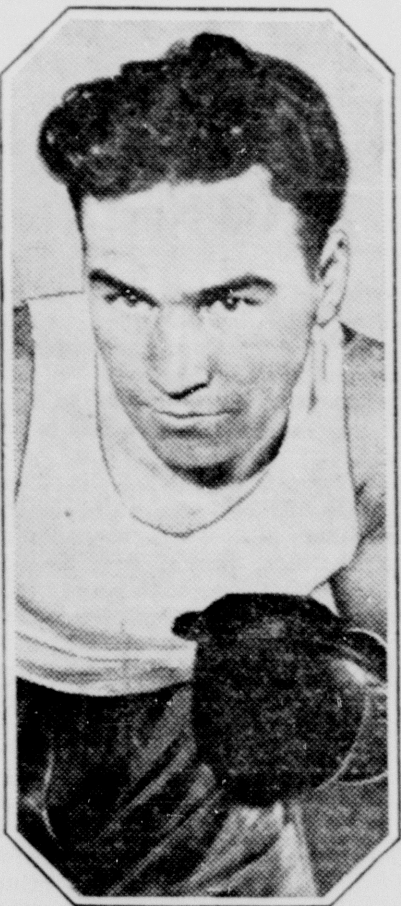

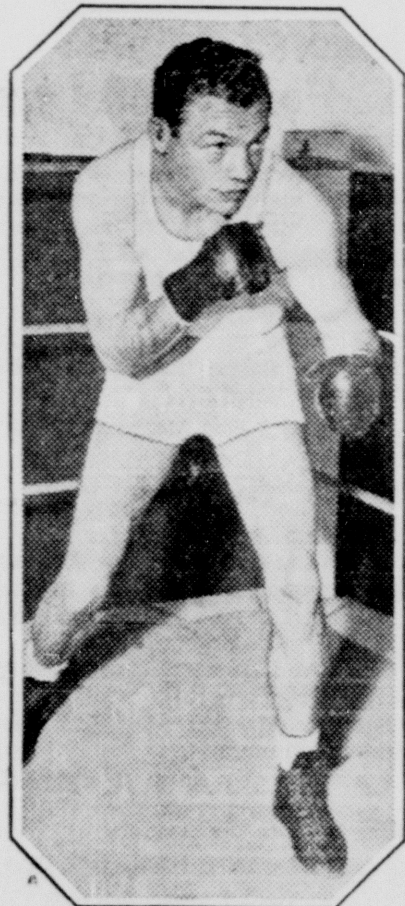

ABOUT 10 years ago when campaigning as a lightweight Jimmy would enter the ring as a fairly husky welter. Usually he fought natural 135-pounders who would have had trouble building up over the lightweight limit with plenty of time—much less in the few hours between weighing in and fighting. Despite his "welter" classification today, Jimmy is usually above well over 147 pounds for his bouts.

Canzoneri probably will weigh in as a welterweight. This won't mean a whole lot, however, for Jimmy probably will weigh in as a middleweight.

Jimmy hasn't been active since May 28, 1935, when he dropped the title to Barney Ross, and this idleness may work in favor of Canzoneri.

Don't let these words give you the impression, however, that the Irishman is one to dissipate in his spare moments. He has married and established a happy and quiet home in Hollywood. He seems to be in fine physical fettle.

BUT Jimmy is inclined to become a bit flabby during periods of inactivity and his legs called by the referee in the third frame.

Jimmy McLarnin, above, and Tony Canzoneri, left, are battling May 8, with Jimmy expected to carry his usual 10-pound advantage. Tony's lightweight title will not be at stake since the Irishman probably will scale upward of 150.

The other fray brought him against Johnny Jadick, who held two earlier decisions over the Italian. All Tony did was whale the dickens out of Jadick for a 10-round victory.

So here we have a tough little fellow, who is always willing to take on the bigger boys, matched up with a ring villain noted for his fondness for small prey.

aren't what they once were. The latter, however, also holds good for Tony.

Canzoneri has climbed through the ropes three times since the first of the year, winning twice by the kayo route. He erased Brescia Garcia in nine rounds and punished Toots Bashara so severely that the match was

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Would the readers of "The Eagle's Tale" like to have the school paper separate from the "Canyon News"? This would mean a paper written by and for the school itself. The paper would contain news for students and ex-students alike.

Would it receive welcome by the students? Would they appreciate it enough to support it? Would they co-operate with the staff in order to make it possible to have a bigger and better school paper?

J. V. Moore, senior, is absent from school because of a relapse from the mumps.

J. V. has been absent from school five weeks during this spring, and now he will be forced to miss several more days.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

What you said, plus what the other fellow thought you meant, often makes a poor story when repeated. Don't gossip!

Home Economics
Students Attend
San Angelo Rally

Nine Home Economics students and Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel left yesterday for San Angelo to attend the State Home Economics Rally today, tomorrow, and Saturday.

Tests were held in the Home Economics classes last week to determine the delegates for the rally.

In the third year class, Marielle Oldham won first, and Gerald Dean Heath, second. Marielle will judge family meals to compete for first prize. Gerald Dean will enter the Family Relationship contest at San Angelo.

Sarah Thompson First
Sarah Thompson placed first, and Mary Charlotte Word, received second honors in the second year class. Sarah will model her tailored dress which she made, and enter a contest selecting kitchen equipment.

Mary Charlotte Word will gather information to benefit next year's Home Economics classes.

Lillian Chambers won first, and Renna Beth Bellah, second in the first year course. Lillian will select children's play equipment and judge personal appearance. Renna Beth will also gather beneficial information for the future work in Home Economics.

J. C. Bellah Wins

In the boys' General Home Economics class, J. C. Bellah placed first, and Joe Frank, second. J. C. will enter a contest to plan a luncheon or supper menu card. Joe will enter a family relationship contest.

Evelyn Cluck is being sent as a club representative. She is president of the Canyon High School Home Economics Club. Evelyn will report this district's Home Economics Rally held here March 14.

Oldham, Brasuel Take Cars
Mrs. Grady Oldham and Miss Brasuel are taking the group in their cars.

The delegation plans to stay in either the St. Angelus or the Cactus hotels in San Angelo.

Honorable mention in the contests held are Ruby Guthrie, Evelyn Cluck, Mildred Shuman, and Loretta Cole, third year; Margaret Stewart and Lula Marie Ellison, second year; Annie Sue Rogers, and Edrie McNeill, first year; and Douglas Brasuel, Sewel Cox, Jack Inman, and Joe Gill, the boys class.

Judges for these contests were Miss Orpa Dennis, W. T. Training School Home Economics teacher, and girls of the College practice house.

By Fairy Hill

The Eagles have been coming out for football for four weeks and are looking good, and when Ray Ford Rusk hits that line, he really makes things scatter.

We want more boys out for football so there will be enough for two good teams, and we can have some good games between the first and second strings.

The boys are looking forward to the game, when they play the Seniors and ineligibles tomorrow.

There are a good many boys going out at noon to play baseball; the others would have more fun if more would come out and play; so everyone get a glove and come out.

We hope to have some good marble players next year, because some of the boys are continuing to play so they won't get out of practice. I guess they will go home next year with all of the marbles.

The girls are playing baseball all in the sunshine again, and seem to have more fun out there than in sitting in the shade of the trees.

The ex-basketball girls of Canyon High School will play next year's team Wednesday afternoon.

Music and dancing are said to be very beneficial to mental patients; but why must nitwits who live in top floor apartments try to cure themselves overnight?

Journalism "Twice
Told Tales" Repeat
Themselves Again

'Twas 4 o'clock in the morning and not a street light could be seen, when the Journalism students scrambled into the school bus to make the Austin trip. The dirt was blowing badly. The students could hardly see two feet ahead, but it was such a happy bunch that the dirt was like an April shower.

Parents hoped that the bus would not meet with disaster in the storm. Each student promised to be most careful throughout the entire trip; so there would be no casualties.

Mid shouts of joy and choking dust the school bus finally started, and all went well until at dawn the bus had a flat tire.

Travel On
As the bus traveled on, the dirt didn't blow, and blue bonnet fields caught the eyes of the excited students.

At Austin a grand time was had, and educational conferences attended. Some girls were quite honored; at the governor's mansion they stayed.

The return trip was uneventful, except at Dallas students were accused of taking from the wall a grandfather's clock that was much too large to go in any suitcase they possessed.

Return Home

It was Sunday night on the trip, and thoughts were turned toward home. Not even a small accident on the trip—when suddenly, as the last student climbed into the bus for the last lap of the journey, the door of the bus stuck and wouldn't go shut. Miss Goodrich pulled the door while the driver pushed the lever. Suddenly thug! Squish! Ooooh! Outside was a blue face and lolling tongue; inside a straining body. Everyone ran to the rescue. The sponsor herself was the injured one—her head caught in the door; however she suffered only bruised ears.

At 9 o'clock on Sunday night the tired, but proud and happy group returned, and the next day the school work was again begun.

This is an account of the Austin trip to the Interscholastic League Press Conference last year. The Journalism Class plans to attend the same conference this year. It starts May 1, and the group plans to leave here Thursday morning, April 30. As yet it has not been decided who will go.

He's the Sophomore smarty,
But is good natured too;
His friends are many,
His foes are few.

Answer to last week's Guess Who: Mr. Aubrey Fox.

Friendship costs least in money and makes most in profits.

Press Club Plans
Visit To Amarillo
News Globe Sat.

The Press Club will visit The Amarillo News Globe, Russell's Stationery, and McCormick Engraving Co. next Saturday.

They will leave Saturday morning in the school bus and visit McCormick Engraving until noon. At the Amarillo News Globe, the machinery in the various departments will be explained to the club. At McCormick Engraving the students will be shown the process of making a picture into a cut ready to be put into the paper. After seeing this it will not be hard for the students to understand why it costs so much to run a picture in the paper.

This visit to the News Office will aid the Journalist for next year in publishing a better paper. There will be 29 students and their sponsor, Miss Lois Goodrich, who will visit these various places.

Jr. Class Will Give Three-Act
Comedy May 7

"So We'll Just Pretend," the Junior Class play, will be presented May 7.

A young girl, played by Mavis Harden, lives in an orphan asylum. She inherits a sum of money, buys a lot of clothes, and goes to college as the daughter of a wealthy family. Her classmates accept her rapidly; she joins the most exclusive sorority, and spends her money freely.

When she has spent nearly all of her money, she becomes frightened. A handsome forceful hero, Melvin Callihan, steps in and—everyone be at the junior play May 7 to see what happens.

There are two of the funniest black characters imaginable. The rest of the cast are happy-go-lucky collegians with a dignified dean and a stern superintendent.

The proceeds will go to the Junior Class to finance the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Admission fees will be 10 cents for children and 20 cents for adults.

Students Present
Assembly Program

The Commercial Classes under the supervision of Miss Ethel Rowland, presented the assembly program, April 13, in the high school auditorium.

The program was given over the loud speaker in the form of a broadcast. Miss Rowland gave a short talk on the typewriter, and Pauline Harris and Marjorie Wilkinson gave a discussion of Commercial Law. Annie Williams, Gertrude Brandt, Paula Beckwith, and Mary Jo Arent typed to the music "Stars and Stripes Forever." Wesley Cox and Annie Williams discussed typing, and a speed test was given to Marjorie Wilkinson, Fred Hart, Loretta Cole, and Annie Williams. Loretta Cole sang "At the End of a Typing Day." Miss Rowland presented Loretta Cole, Fred Hart, and Annie Williams, typewriting certificates for attaining a certain speed in typing. Marjorie Wilkinson was presented the C. T. Pen for having gained the highest speed.

HIGH SCHOOL
PLANS PLAY
DAY FRIDAY

FOOTBALL, BASEBALL, TRACK, AND BOXING ARE FEATURES

Starting at noon tomorrow there will be a half day of class activity consisting of baseball games, track events, and boxing, and ending with the annual gridiron tussle between the ineligibles and the '36 Eagles.

Coach Cleveland Jones said, "Although most of the boys are new, and this is the first game, the exes will give them a hard tussle." The '36 Eagles have had four weeks of hard practice and are eager for the battle, under the leadership of captain Jack Middleton. The ineligibles, with last year's captain, Wesley Cox, as leader, are confident of an easy victory.

Starting at noon there will be baseball games between the classes, both boys and girls. There will also be track events open to all who wish to participate.

Among the boys there will be boxing and wrestling.

The football game will then be the crowning event of the afternoon.

Literary Entries
Receive Laurels
In District Meet

The District One Interscholastic League Meet was held in Amarillo and Canyon last Friday and Saturday. Although the contestants from this school failed to receive any first place laurels, several placed.

In the literary events the boys' debate team, Hal Gamble and Melvin Callihan, won second place, and Martha Frances Campbell, seventh grade, won third in the Intermediate girls' declamations. Marielle Oldham entered in the senior girls' declamations, but failed to place. James Pope, senior boy declaimer, and Renna Beth Bellah, junior girl declaimer, also lost. Carl Criswell also failed to place in the intermediate boys' declamation.

The girls' debate team, Billie Greenfield and Mildred Shuman, were eliminated in the first round by Wildorado.

Canyon High School did not have a track team to enter the field events at the meet this year. Several boys came out, but very little interest was shown.

The Regional Meet will be held here in Canyon next Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Smith Talks
to Home Ec. Girls

"Don't try to be somebody else, because it shows others how little you think of yourself," said Mrs. Bill Smith in her talk to the Second Year Home Economics girls, April 20.

Mrs. Smith talked on children's clothes and illustrated her talk with some clothing worn by her own children.

She said that the main thing to keep in mind when making a child's clothes, is its type.

Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel said, "Mrs. Smith's talk was very instructive and practical. I enjoyed it very much and I am sure the girls did too."

Jim Willson Pays Visit to Rotary Club on Tuesday

District Governor Jim Willson of Floydada made an unofficial visit to the Canyon Rotary Club Tuesday. His official visit was made early in the year.

As a Rotarian, Mr. Willson has toured 37 nations during the past few years, getting a true picture of the effect of Rotary upon the people of the world. Of these experiences, he speaks most interestingly.

"The United States is more concerned in the Orient than we are in Europe," is his conclusion. "The primary interest in Europe is the money they owe us, and which we shall likely not receive," was his summary of the situation.

The talk Tuesday was centered around the theme of Rotary's philosophy, that of giving. This philosophy was compared with that of other ages.

In speaking of the Eastern question, Mr. Willson deplored the exclusion act, which does not represent the spirit of giving. "This nation could better afford to bring 5,000 Japanese and Chinese to our universities every year than to build a battleship," was his conclusion. The action of Japan in Manchuria was not different than that of the United States in Panama, believes Mr. Willson. The big nations of China and India present wonderful possibilities for development. There is no danger of Japan conquering China, as China has always absorbed all of its so-called conquerors, and still remained China.

Joe Hill announced the nominations which were selected for the ballot in the annual election to be held next Tuesday. Names for the ballot were selected by the past presidents of the club.

Visitors present were: Arthur Osgood, Amarillo; Walter Travis and Jim Willson, Floydada; Pete Pearson, Lubbock; S. H. Condon, Canyon.

neers who served in these union services were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Heller, the first farmer in Randall County, and charter member of the Amarillo Presbyterian Church; T. F. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Campbell and family, Dr. J. M. Black and family, Judge and Mrs. Van Zandt and daughter who is now Mrs. Worth A. Jennings; Mr. and Mrs. John Knight, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Hix, Judge and Mrs. C. Eakman, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Service, who built the first court house; Rev. W. H. Younger, Baptist minister; Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Wirt, Rev. T. F. Robeson and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Coffee, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pipkin and family, Mr. and Mrs. N. Thompson and family, Miss Teenie was one of the Sunday School teachers; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Thompson, and many others.

A church without a woman's organization known as the Ladies' Aid or Auxiliary was an unheard of thing, and it might be justly said that a "Church without such an organization is like a family without a mother." Certainly before there was a church building there was a group of devoted Christian women serving ice cream and oyster suppers to the cowboys for the purpose of raising money to buy the Minister a horse and buggy. Just as today they serve club dinners and study mission books.

Ministers who have served the local church since its organization in 1891 are Wm. Rogers, Feemester, Carter, J. M. Burrow, Lotten, A. B. Haynes, J. S. Groves, C. Kilbourne, David Templeton, T. P. Holfield, McDowell, Gordon Lang, W. C. Kunze, T. F. Charlton, and the present Minister, Charles L. Dickey.

Active Sunday School Superintendents who have served the church are: T. C. Thompson, T. F. Reid, also choir director; C. Eakman, J. Cavett, J. W. Reid, Charles Strain, W. L. Smith, and H. S. Strain.

During the 45 years' history of the Church the following is a list of Elders and Deacons who have served at different times: W. F. Heller, T. F. Reid, J. W. Reid, T. C. Thompson, J. M. Black, Dowlen, C. T. Word, R. A. Campbell, W. H. Hicks, John Knight, T. D. Coffee, I. N. Hix, C. Eakman, C. R. Burrow, J. Cavett, J. W. Shanklin, J. L. Duffot, R. P. Jarrett, Harvey Cash, Roy Wright, Bert Newlin, C. H. Jarrett, Joe Black, H. A. Brown, Oscar Gano, and C. E. Strain.

Only five of the eleven Charter members of the Church are living today. They are Mrs. John Knight, Mrs. I. N. Hix, Mrs. T. D. Coffee, and daughter, Mrs. R. L. Robeson; and Mr. R. A. Campbell. Others were W. F. Heller, I. N. Hix, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Black, Mrs. R. A. Campbell, and T. D. Coffee.

In the 45 years of its history the Presbyterian Church has grown from a membership of 11 to 179 with a large Sunday School attendance of well organized classes, young people's groups and ladies' organizations.
